Create a multimedia presentation on google drive to share with your classmates.

Find 3-5 images that represent an event leading to the revolution

You may not put any words on your presentation other than the title page which should have your event and date/ dates.

In your presentation, you should describe the following:

- *What your event was
- *Any key people/ groups that were involved in or contributed to your event
- *What were the roles that individual people played in your event
- *Why your event took place and what led to your event
- *Where your event took place
- *What was the significance of your event for America.

You may not read off of any notes and the only words you may have on the screen are on the title page. Each member of your group should be responsible for LEARNING THE MATERIAL. By not allowing even bullet points on this assignment, you will have to be prepared to explain thing without simply reading from the board. Students in the audience should take notes for the main ideas for each group.
