

Write one paragraph describing a typical colonial planter or farmer's views on equality. Use specific examples from the documents to illustrate inconsistencies between his attitudes toward the mother country and his treatment of individuals within his own colony.