

Supreme Court Case Presentation

1. Choose a Supreme Court Case that interests you that no one else in the class is presenting
2. Give a background summary and the overall story behind the case
3. Describe what the Constitutional issue was that brought this case to the Supreme Court
4. Describe any relevant precedents to the case
5. Describe what the arguments were on both sides of the case
6. Describe what the Court decided in the case and why
7. Tell your reaction to the decision to the case. Did you agree?
8. Describe what lasting impact the case has had on the United States

A great place to look for information on court cases is the Cornell Law Web Site

Law.cornell.edu

Click on supreme court

Click on 1990-present

Topics will be laid out for you. Pick one that interests you.

Opinion

Concurring opinion

Dissent

Syllabus

Information on Slide: name of court case, pictures to help you remember

Background, Issue, arguments, decision, precedents, impact